

NEW YORK'S OFFSHORE WIND INITIATIVE: THE LEGAL PATH FORWARD

Monday, May 21, 2018 | 8:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

New York City Bar Association | 42 West 44th St. Manhattan

Free for City Bar members and members of co-sponsoring organizations; $15 for Non-Members

Two panels will present at this conference to discuss the policies being pursued for offshore wind. The first panel will provide an overview of the opportunities presented by offshore wind, New York State's plan for the development of this resource, the onshore facilities needed to support offshore development, and the legal framework governing procurement options. The second panel will address legal issues relating to offshore wind, including those related to federal licensing, environmental review and permitting, admiralty issues, and labor matters.

Register at: www.nycbar.org/offshorewind

Sponsoring Association Committee: Environmental Law Committee, Kevin Healy and Amy Turner, Co-Chairs

Co-sponsoring Organizations: Environmental and Energy Law Section of the NYSBA Environmental Defense Fund; Natural Resources Defense Council; New York Offshore Wind Alliance; Institute for Policy Integrity at NYU School of Law; Sabin Center for Climate Change Law at Columbia Law School; Sallan Foundation; and Public Interest Law Center at Fordham Law School