

Implementing New York's New Climate Law

PANEL DISCUSSION ON NEW YORK'S CLIMATE LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNITY PROTECTION ACT

Wednesday, October 23rd, 2019

6:00 to 8:30pm

New York State's nation-leading Climate Leadership and Community Protection Act will require drastic changes to our transportation, buildings, and energy sectors. This event will bring together experts across sectors to explore pathways to achieving carbon neutrality.

With a welcome by New York League of Conservation Voters President Julie Tighe and introductory remarks by NY State Assemblymember Daniel O'Donnell, the event will consist of two panels, with a short break in between for refreshments.

Panel 1: Curbing Emissions from New York's Major Sectors

Moderator: Michael Gerrard, Columbia Law School, Director of the Sabin Center for Climate Change Law

Panelists:

Craig Schwitter, Columbia Graduate School of Architecture, Planning and Preservation (GSAPP)
Jessica Ottney, The Nature Conservancy
Jackson Morris, Natural Resources Defense Council
Daniel Smith, Ameresco
Kate Slevin, Regional Plan Association

Panel 2: Greening New York's Economy

Moderator: Malo Andre Hutson, Columbia GSAPP, Director of the Urban Planning Ph.D. Program

Panelists:

Cecil Corbin-Mark, WEACT for Environmental Justice
Alfred Griffin, New York Green Bank
David Hawkins, IUOE Local 94
Tonya Gayle, Green City Force

NYLCV President Tighe
